

Worker Training

GET THE JOB YOU WANT!

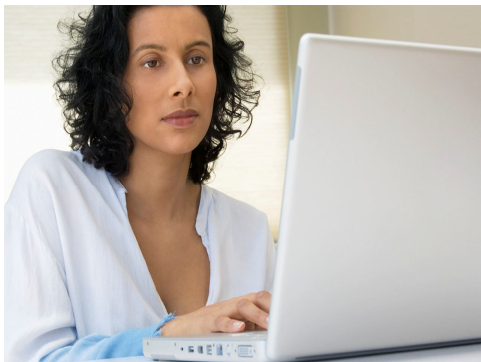

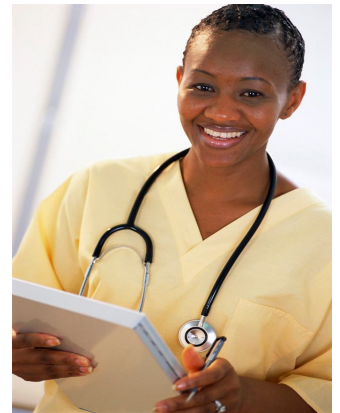

Upgrade your skills while on unemployment

The Community and Technical Colleges can help you with the Employment Security requirements to take advantage of this opportunity.

FUNDING FOR TRAINING

WORKER RETRAINING can provide tuition and support for you to upgrade your skills if you meet one of the following:

- Currently eligible to receive unemployment benefits; or
- Received a layoff notice and will be eligible for unemployment benefits; or
- Have exhausted unemployment benefits within the last 24 months; or
- Are a displaced homemaker; or
- Have ended your self-employment due to economic conditions

NOT ON UNEMPLOYMENT?

You may also be eligible for funding if you are working and meet TWO of the following criteria:

- You have less than a 45 credit college certificate
- You are in a declining industry
- Your job is at risk because you need to upgrade skills

VETERANS: You may be eligible for funding if you have received an honorable discharge from the U.S. armed services in the last 24 months.

For high demand careers -
Just contact the Worker Retraining office at the college you wish to attend.
(see reverse for locations and contact information)

